Privacy policy

Last updated: 04/11/2026

What data we process

Account users' data (name, e-mail), company details and recipient data entered by the account user (phone, name, personalization values).

Purpose

We use the data only to provide the service: sending messages, reports and billing.

Storage

Files are kept in closed storage; access is granted through short-lived links after a permission check.

Your rights

You can request access to your data, its correction or deletion by contacting us.
